Mr. Scott Rock,

I write this letter as a personal appreciation of the services offered by you and your team at RockIT Solutions. The services have been simply outstanding and invaluable to the success of our firm, EdaptIT Technology Solutions, obtaining our SOC 2 compliance certification. Detailed reports and proactive monitoring and maintenance have proven invaluable in ensuring the health of our systems and allows for preventing potential issues before they escalate. The personalized support and expertise that you and your team offer have resolved our technical challenges, provided our staff to minimize downtime and enabled our team to focus on our core business activities. Thank you once again for your support and commitment to our success. We look forward to our continued partnership and achieving even more milestones together.

Best regards,

Ralph Smith
